

Introduction to Philosophy and Metaphysics

New Acropolis is offering a program of introduction to philosophy and metaphysics, aimed at providing knowledge of the most important Schools of Philosophy and the practical application of these teachings. This program integrates the wisdom of East and West and teaches the values of universal ethics that can unite people regardless of religious and cultural beliefs. We offer integrated, humanistic education that equips the human being with the tools to direct his own life and serve efficiently those that surround him.
